A. "FREEDOM HALL" NAMING REQUEST FOR MILE SQUARE REGIONAL PARK

"Freedom Hall" has been proposed as the name for the new multi-purpose center at Mile Square Regional Park.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Approve "Freedom Hall" as the name for the new multi-purpose center at Mile Square Regional Park.

B. DEVELOPMENT OF PARK CLOSURE POLICY

OCCO 2-5-15 and 2-5-46 authorize the OC Parks Director to determine park hours and closures. Current closure procedures are set forth via a department memo and through ranger academy training. OC Parks proposes that a policy be developed to formalize the current process and expand closures to include excessive heat and red flag warning days.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Request that OC Parks staff develop a park closures policy that establishes guidelines for park closure and refines current procedures.

C. COMPETITIVE/RACE EVENTS POLICY

In an effort to reduce collisions and user conflict concerns, a policy is proposed to prohibit high-speed events at regional and wilderness parks and limit those events to managed access facilities.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Concur with implementation of the Competitive/Race Events Policy.

D. REVISION OF PARKS COMMISSION MEETING CALENDAR

Both the Strategic Plan and Strategic Financial Plan for OC Parks are anticipated to be scheduled for Board consideration before the end of the year. To facilitate sharing and discussion of both plans with the Parks Commission prior to agendaing with the Board, staff recommend that the Commission conduct a meeting in lieu of its scheduled September field trip.

The Commission has two additional meetings this year – on October 4 and November 1, 2018. Should there be adequate time for a field trip later in the year, staff will return to the Commission with a recommendation to conduct a field trip in an alternate month.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Approve revision of Commission meeting schedule to allow for a meeting on September 6, 2018 in lieu of the previously-approved scheduled field trip.
