

Construction scheduled on Dana Wharf February 10-18, 2014

Beginning next Monday, contractors will be removing and replacing the existing accessible ramp on the North East side of the Dana Wharf Sportfishing building.

This construction is part of the renovation for the new restaurant tenant in this location.

Contractors will be working in the evening hours in order to minimize disruption to neighboring businesses, and is anticipated to last approximately one week., with no work scheduled for Friday, February 14, 2014.
