Creatives are invited to paint, sketch, or draw at this historic location. Our professional artist will provide instruction and tips about getting started painting from life outside, also called plein air painting. The focus will be capturing the beauty of the gardens. There are citrus trees, a foliage covered gazebo, and several lovely gardens.

Upon registration, a recommended list of materials is available for you to bring to this free program. No materials are provided, only art instruction. A tour of the house and background of the Key family is highlighted.

This program welcomes all who are interested and love the arts, from beginning to advanced artists. Come experience an OC Park in a new way.

Event is free.
