

Park Protectors

OC Parks preserves and enhances the natural and cultural resources found throughout our parks for recreation, education and exploration. This includes, but is not limited to plants, animals, geological features, fossils and artifacts. Protecting these amazing resources allows future generations to enjoy them, just like you are doing today!

Draw at least three features you feel are important to protect, preserve and enhance for people to enjoy for years to come inside the orange below.

Anywhere Activity